

Numerical Course Evaluations

Numerical evaluations for courses taught at University College at Washington University in St. Louis

	Business Ethics (online) Summer 2020 E = 15 N= 9	Biomedical Ethics (hybrid) Spring 2020 E = 8 N = 3	Biomedical Ethics Fall 2018 E = 18 N = 18
Syllabus, texts and other course materials were available at the beginning of the semester	4.75	5.00	4.89
Course objectives, expectations, and requirements were clearly defined in syllabus	4.63	4.67	4.67
Instructor was prepared for each class	4.88	5.00	4.72
Course material was presented in clear, organized manner	4.38	5.00	4.22
Instructor was responsive and sensitive to questions in class	4.75	5.00	4.67
Instructor was available for assistance outside of class	4.63	5.00	4.78
Overall instructor rating	4.25	5.00	4.44
Assigned readings were valuable	4.00	5.00	4.11
Exams were fair and reflected course material	4.38	5.00	4.33
Written assignments and papers were valuable	4.50	5.00	4.17
Papers and exams were graded fairly	4.38	5.00	4.24
Comments on written work were sufficient and useful	4.38	5.00	4.29
Evaluation of my work was clear and timely	4.50	5.00	4.50
This was a challenging course	4.50	5.00	4.22
I learned a great deal in this course	4.25	5.00	4.28
The workload was appropriate	3.71	4.67	4.06
Overall course rating	4.13	5.00	4.12
This course allowed for significant interaction with the instructor ( remote learning only )	4.63	5.00	n/a
This course provided multiple opportunities to engage with other students. ( remote learning only )	4.75	5.00	n/a
I was able to use the tools selected for this course effectively ( remote learning only )	4.75	5.00	n/a